Response to Amendment

1. Based on applicant's amendment, filed 9/19/2007, see page 17 through 19 of the remarks, with respect to amended claims 1 and 2, have been fully considered and are persuasive, upon further consideration the drawing objection and rejection, of 102 (b) and 103(a) for claims 1-44, are hereby withdrawn.

The claims 1-44 are allowed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

This invention relates generally, to automatically recognize any wheel model in a production or assembly line within minimum lapses.

Based on applicant's amendment, with respect to claim 1, the closest prior art of record (Sanchez-Revuelta and Sakoh). Sanchez-Revuelta reference is directed to the high-precision measurement of the rolling parameters of moving wheels on railway vehicles, using "laser light". Sakoh reference is directed to a vehicle driving information storage apparatus and a vehicle driving information storage method and in particular, to a data compression associated with an image storage and image processing as well as image compression ratio increase and image improvement in reproduction process. But neither Sanchez-Revuelta nor Sakoh teach or suggest, among other things, " the first image capturing means and the first lighting (using artificial vision) means are arranged above the wheel locating means so as to enable the first image capturing means to capture a front image of a wheel to obtain a captured front image, the first communicating means sends front image to the first control means; the first control means processes said front image to obtain data for identifying a wheel model, said first control means further comprising first transforming means for converting a circular portion of the front image into a rectangular portion to obtain a transformed front image.

These key features in combination with the other features of the claimed invention are neither taught nor suggested by (Sanchez-Revuelta and Sakoh) prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
